

Prácticas Máster de Acceso a la Abogacía 2022

Graduates 2021-2022

Start date of the vacant post: September 2022

Description:

Since its foundation in 1930, Allen & Overy has gone from strength to strength, expanding through a combination of mergers, selective lateral hires and organic growth to become a truly international law firm. We have over 5,400 members of staff working in 44 major centres worldwide.

We look for the same skill set in each of our practice areas. In all cases, you should:

- have a strong academic record
- superior written and verbal English language skills
- have a commercial approach
- be able to think laterally
- be pragmatic and well organised
- be able to adapt to different cultural settings
- be able to cope well under pressure
- a sense of responsibility and commitment to a high standard of work

If you choose us as a graduate – what can you expect?

We see that you are quickly integrated into our network with excellent training and development opportunities. You'll need to embrace change and innovation, and be ready to challenge yourself. You will be rewarded with access to quality and interesting work, interactions with clients at an early stage and working with colleagues around the world who are the best at what they do. Once you've gained some experience locally, secondment opportunities to explore our extensive global network are on offer, as well as first class training programmes offered domestically and globally for all levels of lawyers.

Our graduate training will comprise of two six-month rotations in different practice areas (Corporate and / or ICM-Banking and / or Litigation). During each rotation, you will work alongside a partner and our lawyers and actively contribute to the day-to-day work of that team – working on transactions and cases, taking real responsibility and gaining plenty of client exposure.
